MONITORING A BLUEBIRD TRAIL IS EXCITING & REWARDING!

Many individuals find great enjoyment in being a part of the activity dealing with bluebirds. Mountain Bluebird Trails hopes you will take part in this exciting activity. It is a chance to learn about the bluebirds' life cycle by establishing a trail of nest boxes. Observing the birds as they establish their nest box home, the laying of the eggs and the raising of the young is a very special treat.

Once the trail is established, one needs to monitor it about once a week to gather the data necessary for reporting at the end of the season.

Coordinators for Mountain Bluebird Trails are available to assist you in learning about the care and monitoring of the nest boxes on your trail.

WHAT DOES YOUR MEMBERSHIP IN MOUNTAIN BLUEBIRD TRAILS PROVIDE?

Mountain Bluebird Trails, Inc. was organized to foster the preservation of bluebirds and other cavity nesting birds through education, nest box programs and research. Your membership fees provide us with the funds necessary to:

- Publish our newsletter for members
- Create a guide to establishing and maintaining a trail of nest boxes.
- Continue our nest box building projects.

As a member, you will have access to the names of other bluebirders in your area that you can share ideas, information and experiences with. You will also have access to the nest boxes we build so you can establish a trail of your own.

Bluebirders are dedicated to making our world a better place to live. Every monitor gets to share the thrill of seeing young birds fledge that, otherwise, had no chance for life without the monitor's assistance.

Your support for restoring the bluebirds is appreciated regardless of whether you wish to establish a nest box trail or not.

Please consider joining us in our efforts to preserve these beautiful birds.
